

LAUREL HILL'S LEGENDARY LADIES OF THE CIVIL WAR ERA

Saturday, November 18, 2017 at 1:00 pm

Laurel Hill Cemetery

3822 Ridge Avenue

Philadelphia, PA 19132

$15.00 adults; $12.00 seniors and students

Please join Mrs. Elizabeth E. Hutter (a.k.a. Kerry Bryan) as she not only shares the story of her remarkable 19th-century life, but also presents brief biographies of about a dozen other notable women of her era who are likewise permanent residents and neighbors at historic Laurel Hill Cemetery.

This program will make use of “Magic Lantern” (PowerPoint) technology to present these stories, so no matter what the weather, you can take an “armchair tour” of history in the cozy Friends House (part of the Gate House). The slide presentation will be followed by a token walk to one of the “legendary ladies” who is buried very close to the Gate House. Mrs. Hutter will then host a reception for attendees, featuring wine, cheese & crackers, cookies, and non-alcoholic beverages.

Tickets are available via the Laurel Hill Cemetery website:

<https://thelaurelhillemetery.org/events/civil-war-ladies> or by calling (215) 228-8200. Reservations are recommended, but tickets may also be available on the day of the event.
