

Sunday Afternoon Summer Concerts

2025

Laurel Hill Mansion

July 13, 2 PM Mimi Stillman – flute and Gabriel Globus-Hoenich - percussionist

Mimi Stillman is an internationally acclaimed flute soloist and founding Artistic Director of the Dolce Suono Ensemble. Gabriel Globus-Hoenich blends a multitude of musical influences together in his work as a performer, composer and educator.

July 27 , 2 PM The Wister Quartet -string quartet

The Wister Quartet has earned high praise from critics and audience alike for its superb musicianship and memorable performances.

August 10, 2 PM Principally Harps! -harp duo

Mindy Cutcher and Janel Whitman offer audience a unique opportunity to see and hear concert grand harps on center stage, as opposed to “hidden” among the instruments in an orchestra.

August 24, 2 PM Allen Krantz -classical guitar

A graduate of the San Francisco Conservatory and Stanford University, Allen’s concerts feature a diverse selection of pieces often featuring original compositions.

Reservations required. Seating is limited.

Tickets are $30 per concert or $100 for the series of 4 concerts.
